

the probability that a specific domain is present in a high fraction of interacting partners of a specific viral protein is higher if:

1. this domain is highly prevalent
2. viral protein has low number of links